

Key Knowledge and Skills

- John Muir Laws is an artist, naturalist, author, and educator.
- The eye has three main parts when painting: the pupil, the iris (the coloured part) and highlighted areas.
- Harmonious colours are tertiary colours on the colour wheel that are found together.

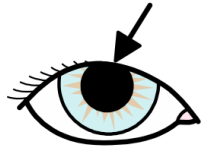

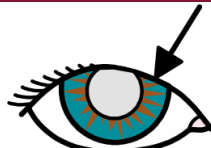

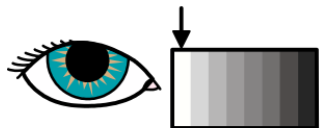

Key Artist

John Muir Laws is an artist, author and educator who studies nature and documents his findings through watercolours.

Vocabulary

pupil	The black, middle part of the eye.
iris	The coloured part of the eye.
Highlighted area	The part where light is reflecting in the eye.
Monochromatic Harmony	is made from a single colour family
Diad Harmony	a combination of two colours that are separated by one colour on the colour wheel
Analogous Harmony	consists of two or more colour that are side-by-side on the colour wheel.	