Word Reading	Phonics and Decoding	Develop their phonological awareness, so that they can: - spot and suggest rhymes - count or clap syllables in words - recognise words with the same initial sound, such as money and mother (Literacy)	Read individual letters by saying the sounds for them. Blend sounds into words, so that they can read short words made up of letter-sound correspondences. Read some letter groups that each represent one sound and say sounds for them. Read simple phrases and sentences made up of words with known letter-sound correspondences and, where necessary, a few exception words (Literacy)	Say a sound for each letter in the alphabet and at least 10 digraphs. Read words consistent with their phonic knowledge by sound-blending. Read aloud simple sentences and books that are consistent with their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words. (Literacy)
	Fluency	Understand the five key concepts about print: - print has meaning - print can have different purposes - we can read English text from left to right and from top to bottom - the names of different parts of a book - page sequencing Develop their phonological awareness, so that they can: • spot and suggest rhymes • count or clap syllables in words • recognise words with the same initial sound, such as money and mother. (Literacy)	Blend sounds into words, so that they can read short words made up of letter-sound correspondences. Read simple phrases and sentences made up of words with known letter-sound correspondences and, where necessary, a few exception words. Re-read books to build up their confidence in word reading, their fluency and their understanding and enjoyment. (Literacy)	Read aloud simple sentences and books that are consistent with their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words. (Literacy)
Reading Comprehension		Enjoy listening to longer stories and can remember much of what happens. Understand 'why' questions, like: "Why do you think the caterpillar got so fat?" Be able to express a point of view and debate when they disagree with an adult or a friend, using words as well as actions.	Listen to and talk about stories to build familiarity and understanding. Retell the story, once they have developed a deep familiarity with the text, some as exact repetition and some in their own words. Listen carefully to rhymes and songs, paying attention to how they sound.	Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary. Anticipate (where appropriate) key events in stories. Use and understand recently introduced vocabulary during discussions about stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems and during role play. (Literacy)

Reading Comprehension	Engage in extended conversations about stories, learning new vocabulary. (Communication and Language)	Listen to and talk about selected non-fiction to develop a deep familiarity with new knowledge and vocabulary. Communication and Language)
Comparing, contrasting and commenting	Be able to express a point of view and debate when they disagree with an adult or a friend, using words as well as actions. (Communication and Language)	Compare and contrast characters from stories, including figures from the past. (Understanding the World)	Listen attentively and respond to what they hear with relevant questions, comments and actions when being read to and during whole class discussions and small group interactions. Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, nonfiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate. (Communication and Language)
Words in context and Authorial Choice	Use a wider range of vocabulary. (Communication and Language) Engage in extended conversations about stories, learning new vocabulary. (Literacy)	Learn new vocabulary. Use new vocabulary throughout the day. Retell the story, once they have developed a deep familiarity with the text, some as exact repetition and some in their own words. Use new vocabulary in different contexts. Listen to and talk about selected non-fiction to develop a deep familiarity with new knowledge and vocabulary. (Communication and language)	Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, nonfiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate. (Communication and language) Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary. Inference and Prediction	Understand 'why' questions, like: "Why do you think the caterpillar got so fat?" (Communication and Language)		Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, nonfiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate. (Communication and language) Anticipate (where appropriate) key events in stories. (Literacy)
Poetry and Performance	Sing a large repertoire of songs. Know many rhymes, be able to talk about familiar books, and be able to tell a long story. (Communication and language) Take part in simple pretend play, using an object to represent something else even though they are not similar. Begin to develop complex stories using small world equipment like animal sets, dolls and dolls houses, etc. Remember and sing entire songs. Sing the pitch of a tone sung by another person ('pitch match'). Sing the melodic shape (moving melody, such as up and down and down and up) of familiar songs. Create their own songs, or improvise a song around one they know. (Expressive Arts and Design)	Engage in story times. Retell the story, once they have developed a deep familiarity with the text, some as exact repetition and some in their own words. Learn rhymes, poems and songs. (Communication and language) Sing in a group or on their own, increasingly matching the pitch and following the melody. Develop storylines in their pretend play. (Expressive Arts and Design)
Non-fiction		Engage in non-fiction books. Listen to and talk about selected non-fiction to develop a deep familiarity with new knowledge and vocabulary	Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, nonfiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate. (Communication and Language) Use and understand recently introduced vocabulary during discussions about stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems and during role play. (Literacy)

Word Reading	Comprehension
- Read aloud accurately books that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge. - Apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words. - Respond speedily with the correct sound to grapheme for the 44 phonemes. - Recognise and use the different ways of pronouncing the same grapheme; e.g. ow in snow and cow. - Read accurately by blending sounds in unfamiliar words. - Read common exception words noting tricky parts (see below) - Read words containing -s, -es, -ing, -ed, -er, -est endings. - Split two and three syllables to support blending for reading. - Read words with contractions e.g. I'm, I'll, we'll and understand that the apostrophe represents the omitted letter. - Develop fluency, accuracy and confidence by re-reading books. - Read more challenging texts using phonics and common exception word recognition.	Developing pleasure in reading and motivation to read - Listen to and discuss a range of texts at a level beyond that at which they can read independently, including stories, non-fiction and poems. - Relate texts to own experiences. - Recognise and join in with language patterns and repetition. - Use patterns and repetition to support oral retelling, e.g. fairy stories, traditional tales and stories by well-known authors. - Orally retell familiar stories in a range of contexts e.g. small world, role play, storytelling. - Enjoy and recite rhymes and poems by heart - Make personal reading choices and explain reasons for choices - Discuss word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known. Understanding books which they can read themselves and those which are read to them - Introduce and discuss key vocabulary, linking meanings of new words to those already known. - Activate prior knowledge e.g. what do you know about minibeasts? - Check that texts make sense while reading and self-correct - Develop and demonstrate their understanding of characters and events through role play and drama, drawing on language from the text. - Give opinions and support with reasons e.g. I like the Little Red Hen because she... - Explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them. - Demonstrate understanding of texts by answering questions related to who, what, where, when, why, how. - Identify and discuss the main events in stories - Identify and discuss the main characters in stories. - Recall specific information in fiction and non-fiction texts - Skim read to gain an overview of a page focussing on significant parts e.g. titles, names, captions. - Locate parts of text that give particular information (scanning) e.g. titles, contents page and labelled diagram. - Discuss the title and how it relates to the events in the whole story e.g. Peace at Last by Jill Murphy. - Make basic inferences about what is being said and done. - Make predictions based on what has been read so far. Participating in discussion - Listen to what others say. - Take turns - Explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them.

Word Reading	Comprehension
- Read aloud books closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation. - Re-read books to build up fluency and confidence in word reading. - Read frequently encountered words quickly and accurately without overt sounding and blending. - Read accurately by blending the sounds in words, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes. - Read accurately words of two or more syllables that contain alternative sounds for graphemes e.g. shoulder, roundabout, grouping. - Read longer and less familiar texts independently. - Apply phonic knowledge and skills to read words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent. - Work out unfamiliar words by focusing on all letters in the word, e.g. not reading place for palace. - Read words containing common suffixes e.g. -ness, -ment, -ful, -less, -ly, -ing, -ed, -er, -est, -y.	Developing pleasure in reading and motivation to read - Listen, discuss and express views about a range of texts at a level beyond that at which they can read independently, including stories, non-fiction, and contemporary and classic poetry. - Orally retell a wider range of stories, fairy tales and traditional tales. - Sequence and discuss the main events in stories and recounts. - Read a range of non-fiction texts which are structured in different ways, including information, explanations, instructions, recounts, reports. - Recognise the use of repetitive language within a text or poem (e.g. run, run as fast as you can) and across texts (e.g. long, long ago in a land far away...). - Learn and recite a range of poems using appropriate intonation. - Make personal reading choices and explain reasons for choices. Understanding books which they can read themselves and those which are read to them - Identify, discuss and collect favourite words and phrases. - Introduce and discuss words within the context of a text, linking new meanings to known vocabulary. - Use morphology to work out the meaning of unfamiliar words e.g. terror, terrorised. - Use tone and intonation when reading aloud. - Activate prior knowledge and raise questions e.g. What do we know? What do we want to know? What have we learned? - Check that texts make sense while reading and self-correct. - Demonstrate understanding of fiction and non-fiction texts by asking and answering who, what, where, when, why, how questions. - Explain and discuss their understanding, giving opinions and supporting with reasons e.g. Hansel was clever when he put stones in his pocket because... - Develop and demonstrate their understanding of characters and events through role play and drama, drawing on language from the text. - Make inferences about characters and events using evidence from the text e.g. what is the character thinking, saying and feeling? - Make predictions based on what has been read so far - Identify how specific information is organised within a non-fiction text e.g. sub-headings, contents, bullet points, glossary, diagrams. - Locate information from non-fiction texts using the contents page, index, labelled diagrams and charts. Participating in discussion - Participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say. - Make contributions in whole class and group discussion - Consider other points of view. - Listen and respond to contributions from others.
